

Nathan Squire

Graphics. Multimedia Design.
Web Design. App Design.
3D Modelling.

University of Queensland.

Brisbane, Australia.

nathansquire67@gmail.com

Resume

Prior to Uni

Bifrost Studios. Paid work experience in game design and multimedia.

Tafe. Certificate III in multimedia design.

Miam Miam Crepes. Part time crepe artist and cashier.

The Noosa Apartments. Casual receptionist, cleaner and gardener.

Uni itself

Bachelor of Information Technology. Majoring in Human Computer Interaction.

University of Queensland.

Graduating in 2017.

While at Uni

Airtec Corporation Australia.

With Airtec I worked remotely as a front end web developer during my first year at uni, and in the holidays they invited me down to Adelaide where I worked closely with the rest of the team.

Vintage Beach Shack. This was originally a freelance job, redesigning the main web store, and now I continue to work for them, editing graphics and webpages whenever a change is needed.

Gluten Free Records. I was appointed lead designer for the record company when it was first emerging, and with them I designed the CD case and lyric booklet for the self titled debut EP 'Namby'.

Dusty Vinyl Graphics and Design.

My own venture, a graphics and multimedia studio specialising in music related media. My work here has been shared by Australian band 'The Cat Empire'.

Himkala Adventure.

This trekking company is based in Kathmandu, Nepal. I volunteered here for six weeks in return for food and accomodation, in order to explore the country - I had an incredible time hiking in the Himalayas. For the company I wrote articles, created short videos, designed graphis, and managed social media.

Portfolio Summary

Branding

Dusty Vinyl

Graphics and Design

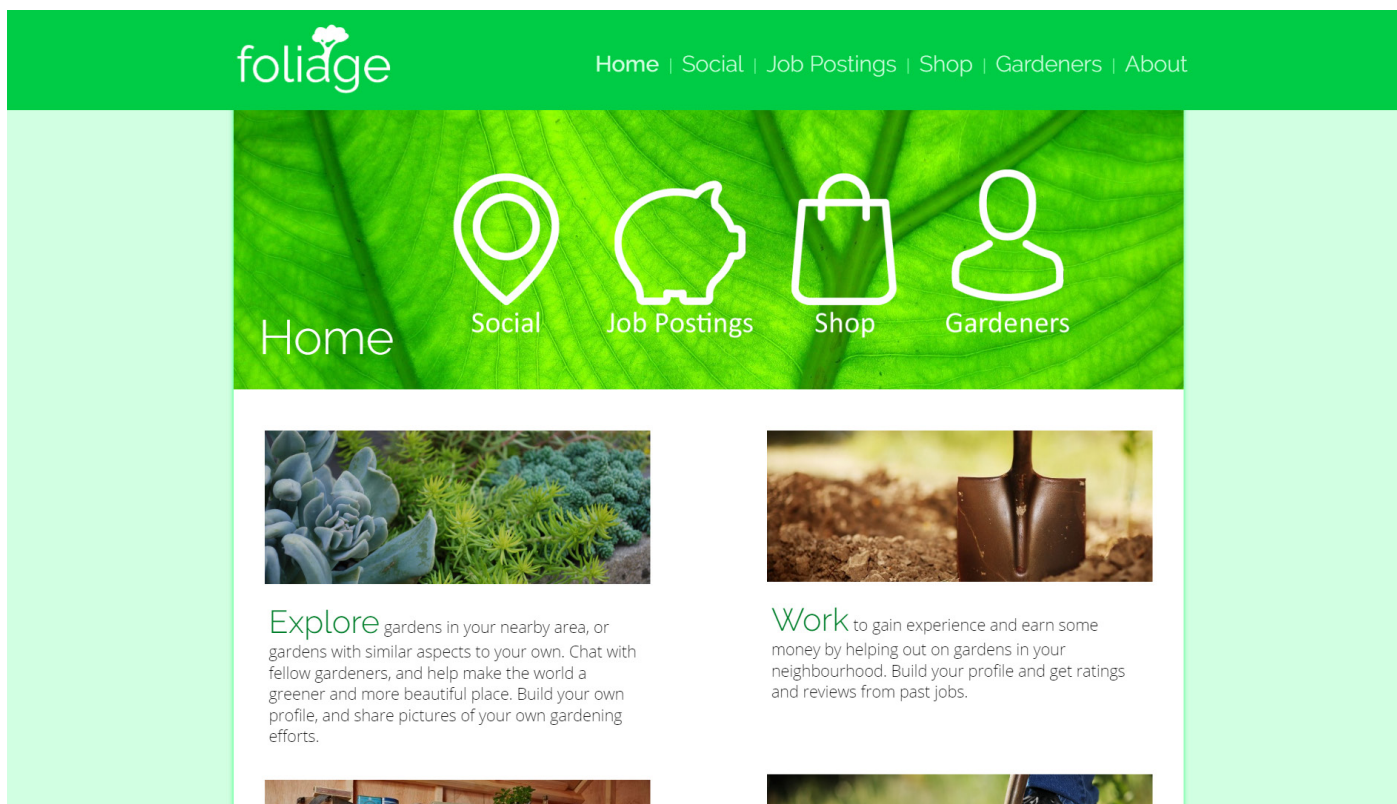

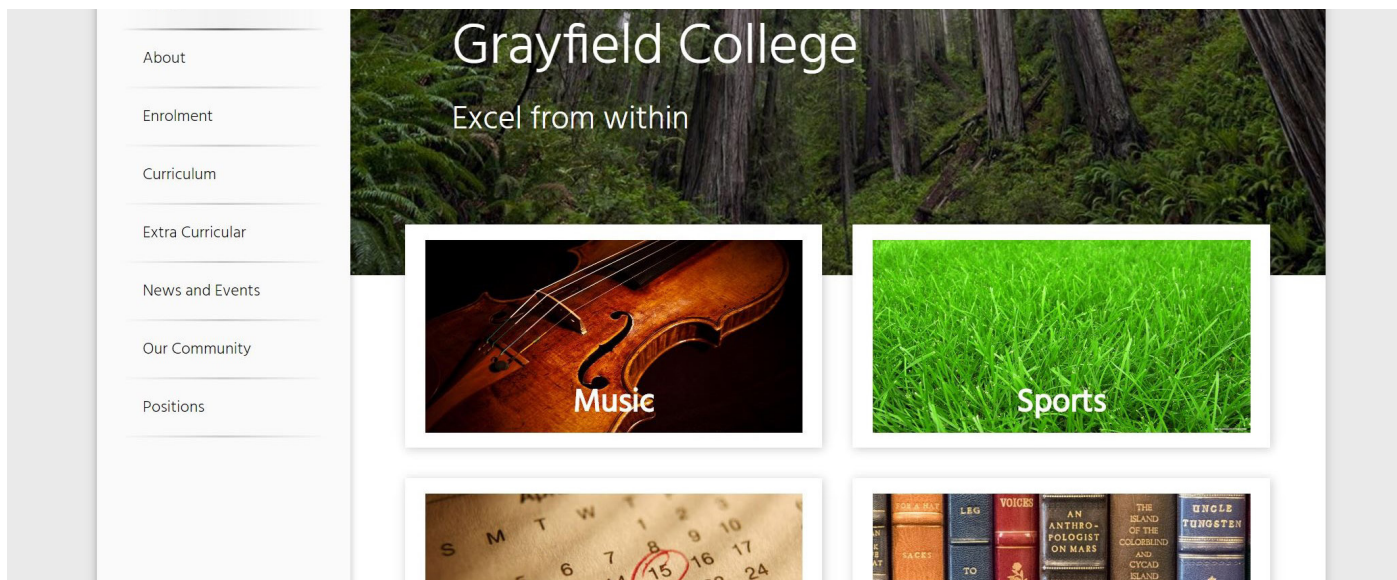

foliage

gluten free records

Portfolio Summary

Web Design

6 Nathan Squire

The Bench Press

Volume 1

July 2016

Young Girl Disappears

Working at the food court Thursday night. She wants tattoos down her back to pump up the fight. She says a bar through her neck will stir up the ring alright. [Chop the tomato and laugh, chop the tomato and laugh.] There's bite in her smile and eyes more than plastic. All her sentences stretch out like elastic. She blasts metal core, she's an '09 drastic. [I chuck and laugh, chuckle and laugh.]

“ Amy's gonna be a boxer.
Swing, swing, swing”

Dropped out of school the moment she could. Was told she'd never live to achieve anything good than hanging around, polluting this neighbourhood. [I rinse the dishes and nod, rinse the dishes and nod.] She tells me how her family hurts her head. How most mornings she wakes up in her ex's bed. And one day these sandwich gloves will be big and red. [I bat an eyelid and nod, bat an eyelid and nod.]

Now I'm at the concert, aching, and I'm staring at the floor, as a room full of feet is staring back at me. It's silent and it's distant in the ocean of canvas shoes, and I can't stop wondering if she's out there swinging if...

It's the present day and it's getting late. There's no fight left undone, no more ground to be run. Bit of rum to help me sleep, and I'm lying in the dark. After all these years, sympathising with a compulsive liar. Amy's disappeared off the face of the earth. I searched for you across the web, I even read the local paper. For the sake of all that I could ever hope for in this world, I hope you're out there pummeling things into water vapour.

Preliminary
Final Review

Page 4

